

Kaga stared up in disbelief at the shadow that had suddenly fallen up on her, blinking a couple of times and even trying to wipe her eyes with her fists to make sure what she saw was even really there. It did not disappear though, a giant girl dressed in a short kimono whom was grinning down at the smaller Kaga below. Another one rather easily noticeable was of course the stature of this giant Kitsune, she was definitely a cute loli type as well.

The giant Kitsune loli did not seem to do much in the beginning, though Kaga could still not take her eyes off of her considering the way she was towering above, and with the short kimono she also got a decent view up underneath it as well, and her cheeks turned a tad red as she noticed that the panties of this giant loli were bulging out considerably, and she had taken notice of the little Kaga staring so intensely there as well.

“Ooh, curious about what is in my panties? Sure, I’ll show you!” She said with a loud giggle as she reached down underneath her kimono to pull the panties down, allowing for her sizable cock and balls some freedom from their prison now. She listed her legs one at a time until she could simply drop the giant pair of panties down next to Kaga. “There...All out in the open for you...And now for you to get a closer look as well!”

Without giving Kaga any time to think over the words spoken the giant loli reached down to pick her up, hand wrapping around her with ease and she lifted her until she was face to...head with the giant lolicock. “You’ll give me a hand here, right?” More giggling as the loli’s hand wrapped around the cock as well, forcing Kaga’s body to get squashed up against the underside of it while she was slowly starting to use her as a masturbation aid, hand moving up and down the length.

Kaga could feel the extreme heat as well as scent coming from the cock that she was up against; the front of her body being covered in its musk. The giant loli seemed to be enjoying herself though, feeling the curves of the tiny kitsune she was using for her own amusement against her cock in such a way. The hand did start moving faster as well, and Kaga had a hard time keeping up, her tiny arms wrapping around the cock though it was actually getting larger, she hadn’t even been properly erect when she started out with this lewd act. It did not take too long for the cock to be another 1/3 times larger than it used to, Kaga not even able to wrap her arms around the thick length any longer.

Cute moans from the loli Kitsune could be heard above, the stroking motion slowing down after a little while, using her other hand she gently picked Kaga away from the cock now to move her in front of it again. She made sure to keep the foreskin peeled backwards and shove Kaga up against the sensitive skin of the head instead, the cockslit almost threatening to devour her the way it spread open as soon as Kaga was pushed up close to it, a bit of precum already leaking out as well and easily coating Kaga’s body with the salty clear fluids.

“For having more tails than me, you sure are quite a small weakling, aren’t you?” The loli Kitsune gloated and teased from above, her own four tails swishing behind her as she continued rubbing and forcing the little Kaga up against her cockhead, she forced her to grab onto it unless she wanted to fall far down and hit the ground with a splat. “Hold on...I’ll continue now.”

With these words the loli’s hand once more grabbed onto the length and she started rubbing it, she was already getting close to having a release though, especially with the little Kaga being rubbed up against the sensitive skin of her cockhead as well. Every now and then she made sure the tiny kitsune was covered up by the foreskin, trapped within it for a few moments before pulling it back again, more and more precum, thicker than before started leaking out as well and with a thundering moan from above the loli kitsune futa had her release.

At first it was only a single thick string of cum that shot the tiny Kaga right off her dick and towards the ground, luckily for her she was engulfed within the thick cum and landed kind of softly on the ground underneath the giant loli. This first spurt was followed by quite a few more though, some of them missing its target and splashing down surrounding the tiny Kaga, while others landed right on top of her adding to the pile of cum she was already covered in. The giant loli panting and giggling above as she watched this unfold, she could barely see the red tails of the tiny kitsune in there now.

“Aww, it seems I made quite a mess on top of you. Here, I’ll help clean it away as well.” Her hand squeezed her cock a couple of times just to make sure every last drop of her cum had come out before she squatted down in a looming fashion above the Kitsune cum-pile. It was a little bit hard to see her through the cum, but it was possible to make out the loli Kitsune aiming her cock at the pile and winking down.

“Clean-up time!” She exclaimed in an adorable manner as she released another stream, this time a nice yellow waterfall of piss. At least she kept her promise since when that stream of piss hit the pile of cum it did start washing it away, slowly but surely, although the tiny Kaga had to grab onto something on the ground or else she’d easily be washed away together with the piss stream as well. Poor girl was forced a little bit deeper into the ground as well from the sheer force of it, with the giant loli just laughing about the whole situation from above.

It took a while too before she had actually finished, leaving Kaga in a small crater so to say filled with her piss. The tiny red-haired kitsune having to swim around, doing her best not to swallow any of it on accident, eventually finding the shore of this lake and climbing onto it. Coughing and harking, her crawling leading her to bump into the foot of the giant kitsune, she had kept her eyes closed since the salty loli kitsune piss sure was not nice to have in her eyes.

“Ah...You are a fun tiny one you know. I wanna keep you around for future use!” She was once more picked up by the loli now, a bit of fiddling with clothing could be heard. She tried opening her eyes and could see the loli picking up her panties and putting them back on again, before a giant smirking face came into view. “I am Cysh, your new mistress. You’ll stay back here and you better be a good little kisser and toy, or else!”

She was moved to the back of the loli now, all four tails raising up and helping keep her kimono up, the other hand pulling out the back of the panties so she could easily drop Kaga within, allowing the waistband to snap back into place and forcing Kaga to be stuck between the asscheeks of the loli. They weren’t large or anything, but her size compared to Kaga’s made this quite easy. Having heard her words from before she just had to comply, lest she’d probably get punished in worse ways than being covered in loli piss. Closing her eyes, she pressed her hands up against one of the cheeks and started pressing her lips up against it, giving it several kisses. A pleased sound coming from above as the loli kitsune started walking back to her shrine home.
